Identification Requirements

Please go to mba.com/locationregulations to determine what identification is acceptable in your location of testing. A passport is always an acceptable form of ID and is always required when testing outside of your location of citizenship.

No matter what type of identification you are required to provide, the ID you present must contain your name EXACTLY as it appears on your GMAT exam registration, a recent recognizable photograph and a signature. If there is no signature, please present an additional form of identification that includes signature.

Prior to Test Day: 72 hours prior to test day, view your profile on mba.com to make sure your name, date of birth and country of citizenship on your identification EXACTLY match the information you provided when you registered.

On Test Day: Leave as many of your personal belongings as possible at home. Arrive 30 minutes before your scheduled appointment (if you arrive more than 15 minutes after your appointment time and are refused admission, all fees are non-refundable). Present proper identification (mba.com/properID). Scan your palm (read more about Palm Vein Sensor at mba.com/pvr). Lock all valuables and belongings in the space provided at the test center. You may take ONLY your identification and locker key into the testing room. Follow all other instructions provided by the test center staff.

No personal items may be taken into the testing room. This includes all bags, books not authorized by the sponsor, notes, phones, pagers, watches and wallets.

Reschedule or Cancel your Appointment: You can reschedule or cancel your exam online at mba.com or by phone by calling GMAT Candidate Services. Current fees are available on mba.com. If you reschedule or cancel your exam appointment by phone, you will be charged an additional service fee of US$10. Cancellation refunds and reschedule fees will apply, depending on when you request the change, and as applicable by local law. The rescheduling and cancel fee amount is subject to change without notice and to local law.

Missed Appointments: If you miss your appointment for any reason, and you have not canceled or rescheduled it by the deadlines noted above, you will not receive a refund of your registration fee.

General Conditions: When you registered for a GMAT appointment, you consented to the terms and conditions set forth in the GMAT™ Handbook: mba.com/gmathandbook. You also consented to the collection, processing, use, and transmission to the United States of your personally identifiable data to GMAC™ (the "data controller" under certain international laws), its service providers, any score recipient you select (which may be located in a country that does not provide for a level of data protection that is equivalent to the one in your home country), and others in connection with any investigation of unlawful activity or as required by law. You also certified that you are fully aware that you have certain rights to access, modify, or rectify personal data as set forth in the privacy policies.

Graduate Management Admission Council™ and Pearson VUE will not be held responsible for expenses incurred beyond the cost of the exam, including but not limited to travel expenses and lost wages on the day of the exam.

Important test delivery information pertaining to COVID-19 (coronavirus):

Please review the specific health conditions and testing requirements for your country on our Coronavirus Update page before your exam appointment. By scheduling your test appointment, you agree to comply with these requirements. You will be asked to acknowledge these conditions and requirements upon arrival at the test center. You are required to bring and wear a face mask while at the test center and while taking your exam. Candidates without a face mask will be denied testing services. You must briefly remove your mask during the check-in process. If you refuse to wear a face mask or if you are sick or you have been in contact with an ill person, do not go to the test center — please reschedule your exam online for a later date.
